

Bryan Sanyi Named to the 2022 National Black Lawyers Association "Top 40 Under 40"

News / Bryan Sanyi

Bryan Sanyi has been selected to The National Black Lawyers Association's "Top 40 Under 40" list.

Bryan focuses his practice on insurance and employer interests. He provides advice, litigation defense representation, and guidance related to employee practices, contracts, insurance coverage, and hazard injuries to employees.

Bryan has also served as counsel for several technology startup companies advising them on developments in data privacy domestically and abroad.

National Black Lawyers is an honorary association that recognizes lawyers who demonstrate leadership and influence in their respective practice areas. Selection is by invitation only, following a multi-phase review process that includes peer nominations and third-party research.
